WalkMe Feature Retirements

At WalkMe we offer full transparency into feature retirements and product announcements. Use this table to stay up to date with any retired features:

Feature	Retirement date
Legacy SSO retirement By March 31st 2024, WalkMe will end support of our legacy SSO, and instead SSO will be managed from the Single Sign-On page in the Admin Center	March 31, 2024
Legacy Editor UI All users will be migrated to the New Editor Design	January 7, 2024
Older Editor versions WalkMe Editor versions 4.15.9 and lower will soon stop being supported. It's highly recommended to switch to the newest version. Learn more	December 31, 2023
Legacy Workstation UI All users will be migrated to the New Workstation Design	July 3, 2023
Mobile iOS SDK minimum deployment changes • Following Apple guidelines, on June 30 WalkMe Mobile iOS SDK minimum deployment target is changing from iOS8 to iOS11 • This will have no impact on end-users that already have WalkMe installed. However, upgrading to WalkMe's newest iOS version will require iOS's minimum deployment target 11.0+	June 30, 2023
Desktop (legacy) Workstation Version Due to transition to the new Electron version, the legacy Workstation version will no longer be supported	January 1, 2023
WalkMe Embed Slideshow In compliance with the Clickjacking | OWASP Foundation guidelines for software security, we now prevent our slideshow iframe to be cross-origin embedded in third-party sites	October 14, 2022
Classic ShoutOuts and Notifications for Workstation and Desktop Classic ShoutOuts and Notifications are no longer accessible in Workstation and Desktop Editors.	August 1, 2022
Systems Overview "Add System" Based on technical limitations, it is no longer possible to add a system inside Systems Overview in Insights	June 20, 2022
Session Playback Collection setting Support for controlling Session Playback collection by Device User Agent has been removed from the Environment Settings Session Playback Tab	January 17, 2021

Edge Legacy All-In-One Installer Edge Legacy will no longer be supported in AIO or custom extension new deployments – Existing deployments will remain supported until Edge legacy is officially deprecated by Microsoft	January 05, 2021
Insights Features Dashboard All the data can now be found in the Tracked Events Dashboard	September 13, 2020
Insights Reports "Download" You will now be able to use the "Email me" option to get a one time report or "Subscribe" to schedule a recurring report	August 30, 2020
Insights Features page The Features page has been deprecated and its contents (scatter plot) can now be found in the Tracked Events Analytics page	February 24, 2020